AUTOS SPEED OVER COURSE

Thousands at Santa Monica Track in Road Race; Many Cars Seek Honors

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 24.—Teddy Tetzlaff, in a stock car established a new American record in the 151,506-mile stock car race over the Santa Monica course today. The 18 laps were completed in 2:04:10 4-5 or an average of 73.29100 miles an hour. This is but one mile an hour under the world's record made at Boulogne, France, by Nazzara. Bert Dingley in the Pope-Hartford after a grueling race finishing second in 2:10:00 3-5.

The Franklin was in the 16th lap and was in third position when the race was called.

One sixty-one-two-thirty class won by Maxwell. Time, 1 hour 42 minutes 31 seconds. Two-thirty-three hundred class won by Duro car. Time, 1 hour 41 minutes 4-5 seconds.

Maxwell second. Time, 1 hour 44 minutes 15 seconds.

The battle was between the two leaders from the start. The Lister gained an advantage of 5 seconds on the first lap and continued to increase this lead with a jump of a few seconds in every lap until the finish. The Pope-Hartford stopped twice to change tires, while the winner was fortunate in getting off with one change, which was done in 30 seconds.

The fourteenth lap was a disastrous one for the Pope, the lap being made in 8:10 against 7:53 for the Lister. Both changed tires in this lap.

STAR EVENT OF DAY.

At the conclusion of the big stock car event the racers in the big stock cars were immediately brought on the course. This was the star event of the day. The first two cars in the race just finished, the Lister and Pope-Hartford, drew up to the tape and despite the terrific race out of which they had come, were again ready for the call.

The Apperson, Knox, Isotta, Fiat, Only and Ohio were the other starters in the free-for-all.

The big stock car race was without accident, excepting to two occupants of an automobile standing at the roadside.

Auto Wrecked and Three People Near Death in Crash

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—An electrician was badly wrecked, an automobile battered up and its three occupants had a narrow escape from death or serious injury this morning in the business center of Berkeley. The accident occurred shortly before noon at the corner of Alston way and Shattuck avenue. The auto was driven by S. Shannon of 2517 Parker street.

Shannon, who is a wealthy mining man, was driving his seven-passenger touring car down Alston way and was accompanied in the automobile by two women. On approaching Shattuck avenue he attempted to turn his car, but had not re-entered the slippery condition of the street after a night's rain. The wheels of the heavy machine skidded over the pavement at the front of the automobile turned and ran at a dash towards the sidewalk.

The presence of an electrician was all that prevented the car from turning over and the passengers buried in its wreckage.

Shannon quickly shut off the power as the car hit the pole and further mishap was avoided. The electrician was smashed and the occupants of the automobile badly shaken up. The woodwork and some of the fixtures of the car were badly damaged, but the engine responded properly when Shannon recovered from his accident and started off under its own power.

BATTLE IS EXPECTED IN VICINITY OF PARRAL

EL PASO, Nov. 24.—The federal forces at Parral fear that they will not be able to hold the town against an attack by insurrectionists and are calling for reinforcements. A detachment of cavalry has been ordered to the scene with orders to attack and dislodge the insurgents from their stronghold in a mountain near the city. It is expected that a battle will take place early today with the issue uncertain, as the rebels are gathering strength and resources. It is declared by many that if the soldiers enter the mountain fastnesses they will never come out alive.

INSURGENTS IN CONTROL OF NORTHERN RAILWAY

EL PASO, Nov. 24.—The insurgents are still in control of the Mexican North-Western Railroad running from Chihuahua to Madras and trams are only allowed to run at their pleasure. The general manager has been notified that both passenger and freight trains may run for commercial purposes, but that if an attempt is made to carry as many as a single soldier over the line, the train will be blown from the rails. The insurgents are still menacing Chihuahua and further attacks may be made at any time.

AMERICAN ON TRAIN
ATTACKED BY REBELS

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 24.—George Sharp, manager of the Southwestern Cattle Company of this city, who arrived Wednesday from Mexico, was a passenger on the Mexican Northern train attacked by revolutionists last Monday. Sharp went into Mexico a week ago and soon found himself in the center of one of the disturbed districts.

His story follows:

Exhaustive Decision Affirms His Conviction in Superior Tribunal, but Criticizes Judge Lawlor's Conduct on Bench

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The district court of appeals decision of the trial court in the case of the conviction of Abraham Ruef, for the bribery of former Supervisor John J. Furey, covers the ten points of alleged error, raised by defendant's appeal as a reason for setting aside of the verdict of guilty. Each point is in turn decided.

After reviewing the history of the case at considerable length, Justice Cooper, the author of the decision says:

"The first contention of the defendant discussed is the charge that the evidence is insufficient to support the verdict.

"The question, and the sole question, for the jury in this case was as to whether or not the defendant offered a bribe to Furey as charged in the indictment," observed the court, adding that the direct evidence of the offer was that of Gallagher, Wilson and Furey, each of whom was a supervisor at the time."

GALLAGHER'S TESTIMONY REVIEWED.

The decision then traverses the testimony given by Gallagher bearing upon his offer of a bribe to Furey, and sums up as follows:

"It will be noticed that Gallagher nowhere and at no place expressed any doubt, or any best recollection, as to the fact that he was authorized by defendant to make the offer, and that he did not talk with various members of the board of supervisors as to the offer and as to the amount to be paid to each supervisor. His testimony in this respect is direct and unequivocal."

The court points out that Furey testified unhesitatingly that he had been paid by Gallagher that there was $500 or $10,000 to him in the granting of the overhead trolley franchise and that his testimony was corroborated by Wilson, and adds:

"There is other evidence in corroboration of the testimony of the three supervisors tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense."

FACTS STAND OUT CLEAR."

After summarizing the evidence, the decision proceeds:

"There are many other facts and circumstances in evidence, but it is sufficient to show that the supervisors were connected in regard to their connection with the crime. These corroborating facts and circumstances all stand out as clear as the midday sun, with nothing to explain them or in any manner free defendant from his connection therewith. While it is true that no one save Gallagher testified as to defendant's authorizing him to offer the bribe, there is evidence that defendant received $20,000, that he had it converted into currency, that he had the ordinance passed, and that Furey was one of the supervisors who voted for the ordinance. No one could reasonably draw any other inference from these facts than that Gallagher was the agent and mouthpiece of defendant."

This phase of the case is finally disposed of in the following language: "In our opinion the evidence not only supports the verdict of the jury, but no other verdict could possibly be justified."

QUALIFICATION OF A JUROR.

The second point raised in behalf of the defendant that the court erred in denying Ruef's challenge of Juror Arthur on the ground that he had read newspaper reports bearing upon the alleged bribery of the supervisors and had formed some sort of an opinion on the subject.

"In these days of modern journalism, it is natural for the public to have been made aware of the various scandals and scandals of great notoriety or involving some private scandal that will furnish food for the eager multitude. To hold that the publication of the evidence of witnesses, given before a grand jury or a committing magistrate, by question and answer, by an enterprising public journal would disqualify a juror who had formed or expressed some kind of opinion upon it, notwithstanding that he could and would, notwithstanding such opinion, set impartially and fairly, would in many cases make it impossible to secure a jury."

"All intelligent persons read public journals, at least to some extent; and no intelligent man can read the statements concerning the commission of a crime of great notoriety, or even hear the general public talk about such crime, without forming, and in many cases also expressing an opinion about it."

JUDGE LAWLOR'S BIAS.

Regarding the contention that Judge Lawlor ruled erroneously when he refused to direct Assistant District Attorney O'Brien to produce a report he submitted, bearing affecting Juror Arthur, the court says:

"In this case we must presume in favor of the officer as performing his official duty. While the district attorney should always be fair, and so only legal means to secure a conviction, yet he is the attorney for the people. We know of no law or principle which requires him to divulge to his adversary the private information he has, either in the way of evidence or otherwise, in conducting his case. It is the province of the district attorney, and also of the attorney for the defendant, in a criminal case to find out all he can in a legitimate manner as to the character, standing and integrity of the several jurors."

"In any event we can not hold that it was reversible error for the court to refuse to compel the district attorney to show to the attorney for the defendant a copy of the contents of which, so far as the record is concerned, is a matter of mere conjecture."

MISCONDUCT DURING TRIAL.

The fourth point discussed is the charge of the defendant that Justice Arthur was guilty of misconduct during the trial not only in that he displayed bias and prejudice against Ruef, but that he made remarks as to the credibility of witnesses and in discrediting of defendant's counsel.

The remark to which Ruef's counsel particularly objected were that "no counsel has the right to assume a harsh demeanor toward any witness—he has no right to use insulting language—he has no right to detain a witness on the stand longer than the interests of justice seem to require."

Admission of evidence of other crimes committed by the defendant not wholly independent of the crime for which he was being tried, was frequently introduced and exceptions to counsel were "well calculated to undermine the administration of justice."

The appellate court says: "The above remarks were evidently addressed to counsel during the progress of the trial, and while parts of them might well have been omitted and are not to be imputed, we do not think they were injurious to the defendant."

"As we have said before, this court would not be justified in reversing a case for light or trivial reasons, but should examine the whole record in determining as to whether or not the defendant has been injured. Taking the view of the matter, we cannot say that it appears that the judge wilfully attempted to credit or discredit any witness, or that he wilfully cast discredit upon counsel."

RULE OF EVIDENCE.

The next matter discussed by the appellate judges to the point urged by Ruef that the court erred in admitting evidence of other and independent crimes committed by defendant. The evidence objected to was connected with bribes paid to influence the price of ordinance and other measures.

"The general rule," the court says, "which is founded upon reason and justice, forbids the introduction of evidence which will tend to show that the accused has committed any other crimes wholly independent from that for which he is on trial; but the rule does not apply when the other offenses are not wholly independent of the crimes for which the defendant is on trial."

The sixth point made by the appellate court was that the court erred in admitting the complaint filed in the case of Langdon vs. Gallagher, which was instituted for the purpose of testing the validity of Acting Mayor Gallagher's order removing Langdon from the office of district attorney. The complaint was introduced for the limited purpose of showing its relation to Supervisor Wilson's affidavit, in which Wilson swore that he had committed no felony, and the appellate judges say:

"We must presume the jurors to have been men of ordinary intelligence and that they understood and acted upon the evidence for the limited purpose for which it was admitted and for no other purpose. In fact, the affidavit in order to be understood, must be taken and read in connection with the complaint."

SHOOTING OF HENRY FIGURES.

Considerable space is devoted to the defense of Ruef's contention that the court erred in refusing to discharge the jury and impanel a new one after Assistant District Attorney Henry Furey was shot in the courtroom by Morris Haas, and the court sums up its findings on this point as follows:

"It is sufficient to say that in our opinion the court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion. There was no showing that any fact had reached any juror of sufficient importance to distract him."

"It is insisted that the court should have allowed counsel to have examined the several jurors under oath in order to ascertain if they had been biased or prejudiced by the shooting of Furey. In our opinion the court properly denied each permission."

The claim that the trial judge erred in reading to the jury section 1223 of the penal code, and refusing to read the instruction covering that section as suggested by the defendant. The appellate court finds that as the court specifically instructed the jurors upon the material questions before them, the reading of the code section did no harm. At the same time the judges say:

"We have no hesitation in saying that the practice is not to be commended to serve a useful purpose, and the many propositions of abstract law can find no lodgment in the minds of laymen from the mere reading of the sections."

BUFFY MAY APPEAL CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—No statement was made this morning by Attorney Ruef or his attorney, Henry Ach, regarding the future course of Ruef with respect to his endeavors to secure a new trial in the Superior court on the charge upon which he was found guilty two years ago.

Ruef's friends state that he will carry the fight to the highest court in the state.

The first step will be to petition the appellate court for a rehearing. If that is denied, the matter will then be taken before the Supreme Court of the state. This is the procedure which it is understood Ach has determined upon, although Ach would not discuss the matter in any way today.

DRUNK HAS $200,000 EARNED BUILDING STAIRS.

ME'ROSE, Nov. 24.—John O'Brien, who gives his address as "no place in particular," was found lying in the middle of the sidewalk at the corner of East Fourteenth street and Thirty-fourth avenue yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Collet. He was taken to the police station, where he was booked on the charge of being intoxicated. He told Station-keeper Arnst that he was worth about $200,000, and that he made it all building stairs.

WOMAN GOLF EXPERT TO BECOME A BRIDE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 24.—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Morris, daughter of the late George Avery Morris, of Chicago, and Stewart McLean Morgan, son of George O. Morgan of Pittsburgh, Pa. Miss Morris is visiting here, while on route east from California where she recently won championship golf honors at Santa Barbara and Del Monte.

ATHAN'S DISAPPEARANCE.

The contention that Hiram W. Johnson in his address to the jury was guilty of misconduct when he referred to the disappearance of Lathan.

In his argument Johnson referred to the disappearance of Lathan, an important witness for the prosecution, and used these words: "Away with briers of witness! Thank God, some of them are on their way to state prison now, and some of them are being tried today." Counsel for defendant here objected and the court said: "The jury will disregard any statement made by counsel which is in excess of the testimony."

Other passages of personal character in Johnson's speech to which objection was raised and which the trial judge directed the jury to disregard, are also quoted, and the decisions on disputes of them in the following language:

"In our opinion, the remarks in so

1. The evidence was sufficient to support the verdict, being corroborated by independent facts and clearances.

2. A juror is not necessarily disqualified because of reading newspaper reports of a crime and forming some sort of opinion as a result.

3. No reversible error was committed by Judge Lawlor in refusing to direct the Assistant District Attorney to produce a report he had as to Juror Arthur, for "it is the province of the District Attorney, and also of the attorney for the defendant in a criminal case, to find out all he can in a legitimate manner as to the character, standing and integrity of the several jurors."

4. The trial judge was not guilty of misconduct in the remarks addressed to counsel for the defendant, which are attributed to him, and they worked no injury to the defendant.

5. Admission of evidence of other crimes committed by the defendant not wholly independent of the crime for which he was being tried, was frequently introduced and exceptions to counsel were "well calculated to undermine the administration of justice."

6. The court did not err in admitting in evidence the complaint in the case of Langdon vs. Gallagher to test the validity of Acting Mayor Gallagher's order removing Langdon from the office of District Attorney.

7. The Court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion to dismiss the jury after the shooting of Henry by Morris Haas.

8. The Court did not err in reading to the jury Section 1223 of the penal code while giving a separate instruction covering that section.

9. Refusal of the trial judge to instruct the jury that Supervisor Furey was an accomplice is sustained as proper.

10. Whatever may have been injurious to the cause of the defendant in certain remarks used by Attorney Hiram W. Johnson in his address to the jury was not such misconduct as would justify a reversal of the case, because it was promptly cured by the Court directing the jury to pay no attention to it.

THIRTY-NINE KILLED

"Leaving Minaca, the band captured San Ysidro, after an engagement which resulted in the death of thirty-nine soldiers and rurales and with only the loss of one revolutionist."

"At 10 a. m. on Sunday the train bound for Chihuahua and it was then that the train was wrecked at San Andreas by the revolutionists, who had removed two rails. Several persons were slightly injured, though none fatally."

"The rebels surrounded the train, but seeing there were no troops did not molest the passengers. It was he who I talked with several of the leaders, who expressed themselves in a very optimistic manner that the regime of Diaz is a thing of the past."

REBELS WELL ARMED.

"The rebels at this point numbered about six hundred men, all of whom were well equipped, carrying Winches, revolvers and swords. Each man is provided with a good horse and all seem to be anxious to fight."

"After seriously considering the proposition to hold the passengers of the train as prisoners, to be exchanged for rebels, we were finally compelled to do so, and made arrangements to a train to be sent to the south, which arrived Tuesday morning and which consequently brought us to Chihuahua."

"The rebels were well armed, but seeing there were no troops did not molest the passengers. It was he who I talked with several of the leaders, who expressed themselves in a very optimistic manner that the regime of Diaz is a thing of the past."

TRIAL IS CRITICIZED.

In affirming the judgment and the order of the court below, the decision closes with the following criticism of the trial:

"It is somewhat of a reflection upon the mode of administering the law that the trial of a simple question, as to whether or not the defendant offered a bribe to Furey, a supervisor, should take up the time of the court and of the jury for months and create a record of such amazing proportions. There were only two or three witnesses to the main fact. Most of the testimony was as to matters and things which have no bearing upon the case. It is evident that in such case where, through the machinations by law, a jury has finally arrived upon the question of fact as to the defendant guilty, and the evidence is sufficient to support the verdict of the jury, it should not be set aside or disturbed for light or trifling reasons. This rule has always been adhered to by this court and by the law of this state."

BUFFY MAY APPEAL CASE.

EXCITEMENT IS SUBSIDING.

There is no trouble in the states of Durango, Zacatecas, Sinaloa and Aguascalientes. The excitement caused by the outbreak is subsiding and today business in this territory has been resumed as usual.

The only fighting in this vicinity occurred at Gomez Palacio last Monday, when the rural police put to rout a band of looting rebels. In the engagement several rebels and defenders of the town were killed. A report that 300 revolutionaries were within a few miles of Torreon has not been confirmed. Five hundred Mexican troops are in the vicinity.

OAKLANDERS CONTINUE WORK MIDWAY PREMIER OIL GUSHER

DAILY OUTPUT
IS 30,000
BARRELS

Big Well Now Under Control and Pumping Wealth Each Hour of the Day.

Storage Facilities Adequate;
Standard Pipes Already Being Supplied.

There are three hundred residents in this city who are stockholders in the Midway Premier Oil Company, and every one of them is thankful for the day that he bought stock in the corporation in question. There is good cause for the feeling. On Sunday, the thirteenth of this month, the drill in the company's No. 1 well in the Midway district broke through the crust to the oil sand and the flow began with a roar and intensity which are rarely witnessed in such cases.

The oil rose to a height of 300 feet in the air and continued to flow to the height for three days, the estimated output being 50,000 barrels a day. The noise of the gusher was heard a number of miles away and attracted people to the scene from some of the most distant parts of the oil district.

LARGEST IN WORLD.

The well is situated in section 5, 32-28, near Fellows, and is considered by experts to be the largest one of the kind in the world. It is now flowing at the rate of 30,000 barrels a day.

When the gusher began to work, the force was so great that it blew out the great gate valve which weighed between four and five hundred pounds and sent it crashing to the top of the derrick.

Yesterday there was supplied, instead, a large hood of the same style and efficiency as was used in controlling well No. 7 in the American oil fields in the Midway district. As a consequence, the flow is now completely under control and not a pint of the valuable product has been lost.

SUMPS INADEQUATE.

When the gusher began to get in its work with its irresistible force, it was apparent that, although the company had made liberal provision for sun for the accommodation for the flow, the supply was entirely inadequate. This fact was early impressed on A. J. Snyder, the president of the company of this city, who, at the time, was on the ground, and impelled him to heroic endeavors for the purpose of forming sumps for the conservation of the oil which was flowing over the surrounding territory like a black flood.

Snyder made an immediate call for men and teams, and horses and drivers. These were secured from the surrounding country and, within six hours, there were engaged upon the work 500 men and 50 teams, all of which entered into the work with as much order and enthusiasm as if they had a special interest in the enterprise.

The well came in about 8:00 o'clock at night and, regardless of the fact that darkness descended, the teams and men worked all through the night. Great excavations were made on the surface of the earth and the material obtained in this manner was piled in various directions, forming six of the largest kind of sumps.

TWENTY FEET DEEP.

These sumps were twenty feet in depth and, in some places, 1000 feet wide. The work had something of a superhuman effort in it and was completed in a lasting manner inside of three days, with the result that the company now has a sumpage of one million barrels of oil. The lay of the land is such that the flow of oil tended so that it found lodgment in a section which was particularly promising in the management. The job was supervised by President Snyder.

The working continued through the night and the next day and the completeness and expedition displayed appealed strongly to the other oil men in the district, who not only witnessed, but offered assistance to their neighbors in the undertaking.

There was another incentive beside that of the conservation of the oil and that was to save the stockholders from being ruined by lawsuits which Snyder believed impending when he saw that great torrent of oil trending in the direction of and ruining Lake Buena Vista, which is located in that section and which is

TWO SICKLY CHILDREN
Made Well by Vinol; Letters
From Grateful Mothers.

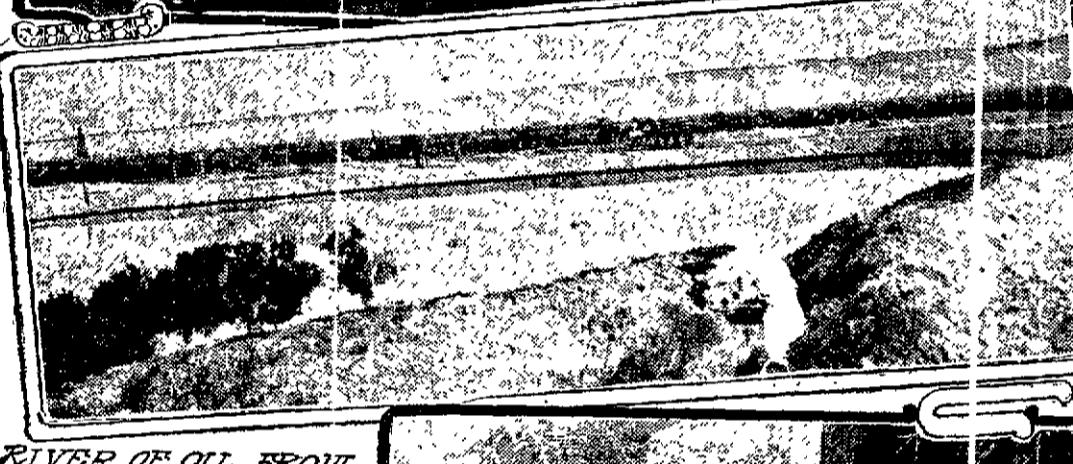

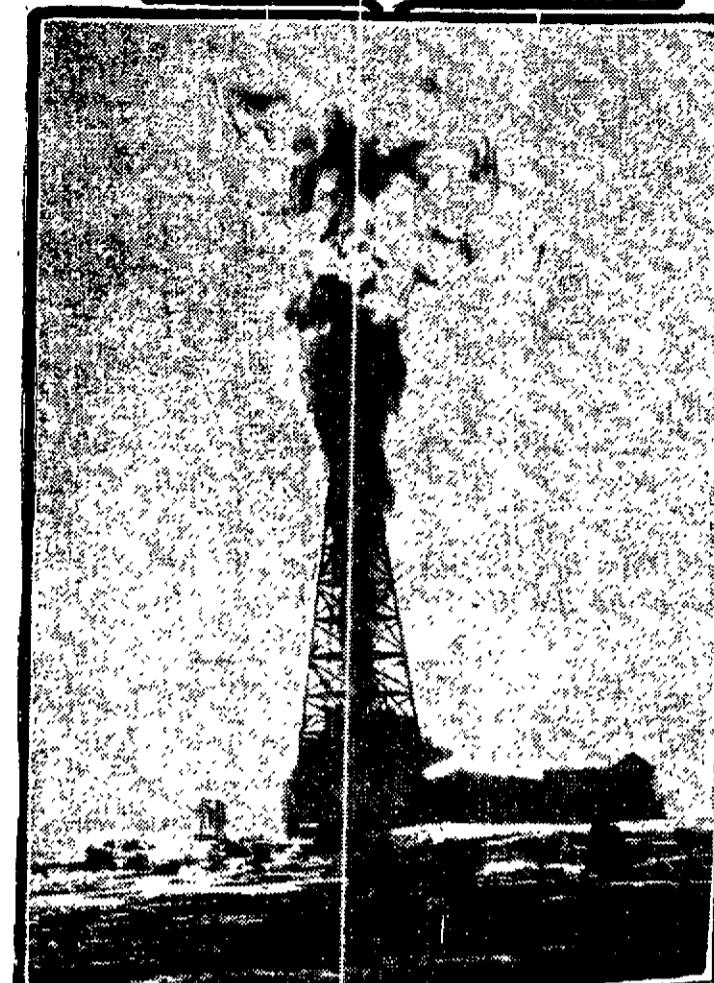

New Haven, Conn.—My little girl was sick since her birth was frail and sickly and nothing seemed to do her any good, until you sent your cure and an iron, Dr. Vinol. As soon as she commenced to take it I noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. She has now taken three bottles of Vinol and from the good it has done for her I can say it will do all you claim for it in building up and strengthening frail and delicate children. (Name furnished on request).

Another mother of Chicago, Ill., writes: "My little girl was thin, run-down, pale and without any appetite. Vinol gave her a good appetite—she has rosy cheeks and has gained rapidly in flesh and strength. I cannot say too much in praise of Vinol for delicate, ailing children."

We ask every mother of a frail, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our agreement to return her money if it does not do all we claim. The Dr. Vinol Co., Oakland, Cal.

REPORTS FROM SECTIONS OF OIL FIELDS, PROMISING

Activity in South of State Bodes Well
For Future Prosperity; Coalinga
Is Getting Busy

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 24.—The Midway

Premier gusher, Section 5, 32-23, is now sanded up. After the preliminary blowout of the well, about a week before it was brought in, the casing was found to be choked with sand 1600 feet up from the bottom. It is supposed that the sand was washed into the well by the water which was used to remove the sand and start the flow until the derrick is repaired and everything cleaned up about the well.

Between the two gates attached to the casing is a lateral joint of 10-inch casing, and it is planned to send up the flow of oil through this pipe into the sump hole. Setting tanks are being prepared and the Standard pipe line will be connected with them.

After the well stopped flowing one of the Standard Oil Company's engineers made measurements of the temporary reservoir into which the oil had been run, and estimated the oil saved from the four days' run at 100,000 barrels.

The temporary closing down of the well will be as welcome to the owners of the adjacent leases as to the Midway Premier people. One account of the gas from the well all near-by fires had to be drawn and work on other wells in the vicinity is at a standstill.

AVERAGE IS BIG.

According to records kept the Santa

Fe's gusher, on section 6, 32, 23, since its beginning, a year ago, has averaged 1200 barrels per day, or nearly half a million barrels for the year's flow. At present the well is doing about 600 barrels.

Headed by B. C. Oliphant, general manager of the California Natural Gas Company, organized to make use of the great amount of natural gas daily going to waste from the Standard Oil Company's well in the Midway, a party of New York capitalists, some of them di-

Oregon Town Appeals for Help to Settle Equal Suffrage Question.

MICHIGANVILLE, Ore., Nov. 24.—Others in the little town of Dayton, Ore., believe election judges are perturbed over the insistence of the feminine sex on voting.

Directly after the election a wrought up election judges appealed to the attorney general for an injunction on the general method of suppressing women voters, who, he alleged, had been in the habit for years past of casting their votes.

It appears, however, that there was a "joke" in the legislative act creating the town of Dayton which provides for equal suffrage.

WIN FOR LIZ.

A "conservative" town council had telegraphed out of existence the pool and billiard tables in the room's of the municipal Community Club, and the "conservative" element was put up by the "conservative" element and by the "liberal" element. The "liberal" favored closing the "id" off the billiard and pool games. The women came the "liberal" and employ council instituting action to have the municipal election declared illegal on the ground that the legislation is unconstitutional and its authority in conflict with the privilege of the ballot upon the women of Dayton.

REFUGEE NAME IN OFFICIALS' BONDS

Governor-elect Johnson and Legislature to Be Told of Conditions.

$10,000 Bond Now Required
by Men Who Handle Millions.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 24.—According to information given out at the State capital the attention of Governor-elect Johnson and the legislature will be called to the amount of bonds now furnished by state officers, with a view to having several of them increased tenfold. Among those suggested for increase are the secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and the state printer.

When the codes were adopted many years ago the general bond furnished by state officials was fixed at $10,000 each for the attorney general, state printer, register in land office, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and clerk of the supreme court.

HANDLES MILLIONS.

It is pointed out that although the record is in the office of secretary of state has increased from $25,000 annually to a million dollars annually, the secretary of state is required to furnish a bond no larger than that of the supreme court clerk, who handles not more than $1,000 a month.

It is also suggested that while the state controller, who handles no money at all, is required to put up a bond of $50,000, that the state treasurer who is now handling $10,000,000 annually of state's funds is required to put up a bond of only $100,000.

The state printer expends about $400,000 for school books yearly and turns the books over to the superintendent of public instruction, yet both officials furnish a bond no higher than that of the attorney general, who handles no money at all.

THEY GROW HAIR

Certain Ingredients if Properly Combined, Stimulate Human Hair Growth.

Research is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered. Batanathol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germs matter and creates a clean, healthy condition.

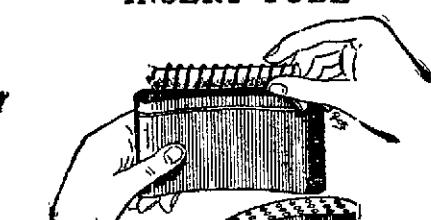

Bilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair. Borneol, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulb, and has a softening, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preserving qualities.

Rewall "93" Hair Tonic is a chief component of these ingredients, which are compounded in a singular form, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair, providing of course there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Rewall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not remove dandruff and promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will, without question or trouble, return every cent paid to us for it. This guarantee is printed on every package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 93 out of 100 cases where put to practical test.

Rewall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from anything else we know of for the purpose of which it is recommended. We urge you to try it at our entire risk. Certainly we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 5c and $1.00. The Owl Drug Co., Inc., 10th and Washington, 13th and Broadway, 10th and San Pablo.

DROPS ATHLETES FOR SEWER ACTION

Two Men Accused of Drinking On Train; Women Report Case.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 24.—The prominent Stanford football team have been suspended from the university through action of the student affairs committee on charges of conduct unbecoming gentlemen. Merton Minton, who was suspended through action of the scholarship committee for delinquencies in scholarship, giving rise to the unique case of a student being suspended from the university in one day.

Although no names were contained in the formal notice of the action of the student affairs committee, it was understood that the two men in question were the two men referred to.

MEN NOTED AS ATHLETES

The student affairs committee has held several sessions and both men have been suspended from the university.

Albert, a sophomore, was suspended from the university, and Merton Minton, a junior, was suspended from the university.

At a meeting of the committee on student affairs held this date, the City Council was arraigned for its action in not passing the resolution calling for the laying of sewers in the Allen district.

The residents of the district entered into an agreement with the council some time ago in which the latter promised to lay the sewers by the means of the Vrooman act if they, the residents, would present before them a petition with 75 per cent of the signatures of the voters.

The members of the club also brought charges against the member of the surveyor's office, to the effect that they were purposely delaying the passing of the bill in the council so that they might place a lien on the sewer bill and have it refused to the citizens for payment.

The Thanksgiving Dinner

The Thanksgiving dinner has become a national institution. Originally a feature of the day set apart for thanksgiving in New England, it has become the feature of a general holiday for the entire nation. It is the gathering point for family reunions, the hospitable expression of abundance, prosperity and good cheer.

But withal the Thanksgiving dinner retains the essential features which characterized it in the beginning. The chief dishes are those that figured originally at the ancient New England feast. The festival has extended its scope but it has remained true to its viands. The table spread is still redolent of Autumn in New England. Turkey and cranberry sauce and mince and pumpkin pies are inevitably associated with the Thanksgiving dinner — are usually the dinner. They were the dinner in the beginning and they are the dinner still, even where the leading article of the menu have to be procured elsewhere.

When the pioneers came to America, turkeys ran wild in the forests; cranberries grew in swamps, and pumpkins produced abundantly with slight cultivation. Combined properly, cooked and seasoned with discretion, these cheap and homely elements made a royal feast.

Since the discovery of America the turkey has been the imperial bird at the banquet. He is the deity of Thanksgiving Day. It is given out by New England historians that Thanksgiving Day was instituted in a spirit of thankfulness to Providence for the blessings of peace, health and abundant crops, but there is a lurking suspicion that the discovery of the turkey on these shores prompted the institution of a festival dedicated to the gastronomic excellence of the noble bird. At any rate, the turkey is the dish of honor at a Thanksgiving dinner. Without him the feast would be shorn of its glory. Thanksgiving dinner would not be Thanksgiving dinner without turkey. In short, he turkey is the object of a certain sort of idolatrous worship on Thanksgiving Day. There are other birds, delicate and toothsome, for the table, but in Gargantuan proportions there is none to compare with the turkey. As he dominates the barnyard, so he lords it at a feast. Stuffed with oysters, or chestnuts, or mushrooms, or even breadcrumbs, he is fit to grace the table of the gods. The Puritans recognized his virtues and possibilities and hence instituted a festival in his honor. Thanksgiving Day is really dedicated to the turkey. It is the turkey that has popularized Thanksgiving Day all over the country. Had the turkey not been found on these shores there would have been no Thanksgiving Day, and the Thanksgiving dinner would be a barren ideality.

An effort is being made to raise funds in the United States to aid the suffragette movement in England led by women of the Pankhurst type. In England they make a distinction between suffragettes and suffragists. The former are trying to carry their point by mobbing officials, creating riots at public meetings and making general disturbances to attract public attention. A few days ago they gave an illustration of their methods by surrounding the residence of Premier Asquith and keeping his family besieged for several hours. The female rioters amused themselves by stoning the house, breaking the windows, and indulging in vociferous cries. This was kept up till Mr. Asquith was finally compelled to call the police and have the mob dispersed. Some of the women assaulted the police and courted arrest by the most outrageous conduct and language. American money should not be given to encourage this sort of business. It is disgraceful and in the highest degree unbecoming. Women who engage in such proceedings unsex themselves and do everything tending to prove their unfitness for the exercise of citizenship.

The Washington Post is unkind enough to recall that in 1909 Roosevelt wrote of Tolstoy that "he has in him certain dreadful qualities of the moral pervert." Tolstoy was a great literary genius, but anyone who has carefully read his books will appreciate the force of Roosevelt's criticism.

New York and California.

The population of the State of New York has increased 25.4 per cent in the last decade. According to the census figures just announced the State has gained 1,814,385 new inhabitants. The gain is greater than the combined population of Kansas and Delaware. About two-thirds of this enormous increase is in Greater New York. That city now has 20,487 more inhabitants than all the rest of the State.

California will make a fine showing in comparison with other States, but compared to New York she is still a rather small potato. Her gross increase, however, will probably equal that of Ohio, which is given as 609,576, or 14.7 per cent. The census officials have not yet given out the full figures for California, but the population of the principal cities has been announced. They show a total of 1,093,612, as follows:

San Francisco, 416,912; Los Angeles, 319,198; Oakland, 150,174; Sacramento, 44,696; Berkeley, 40,434; San Diego, 39,578; Pasadena, 30,291; San Jose, 28,946; Alameda, 23,383. Total, 1,093,612.

Ten years ago the same cities showed a population of 619,498; their gain is therefore close to 400,000, or over 60 per cent. The population of the State in 1900 was 1,485,053. These cities at that time were less than half the population of the State, and it seems quite likely that the relative proportion has been maintained, for the rest of the State has been growing just as these larger cities have.

If the rate of gain made in the cities is maintained throughout the State, the population of California is in the neighborhood of 2,100,000. It will run above 2,000,000 in any event, which will give the State two more Congressmen. In the Eastern and Middle States the population of the rural districts has remained practically stationary, but that rule will not apply to California, for there has been a steady inflow of agriculturists during the last few years. However, California's gross increase will hardly be more than one-third the gross increase in New York. That State has grown more than Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Missouri combined.

By a referendum vote the electors of Oregon have declared that the plea of contributory negligence shall not hereafter be entertained in actions for damage for personal injury. This reverses a rule of law, so far as Oregon is concerned, that prevails in every English speaking country. Under the common law rule an action for personal damage cannot be maintained if the defense can show that the injury resulted in whole or in part from the carelessness or negligence of the person injured. The people of Oregon have decided that this plea cannot be set up hereafter. Also, the fellow-servant plea has been set aside. Liability cannot now be denied on the ground that the damage resulted from the carelessness of the injured party or a fellow-servant. This is a radical departure from the canons of English and American jurisprudence which have hitherto held that a person who has not observed due diligence in his own behalf has no ground for complaint of negligence on the part of others.

DAUGHTERS SEEK TO BREAK TRUST

Children of G. S. Myers, Multi-millionaire Tobacco Merchant, Contest Will.

SAN BERNARDINO Nov. 24.—The will of the late George S. Myers, St. Louis tobacco merchant and millionaire, who died last month at Redlands, is being contested by his three daughters. George Myers' Coppel, Mrs. Mary Myers Craven, and Mrs. Robert Myers Babcock. The suit was filed in the superior court for the daughters. They allege that their father was of unsound mind when the will was executed at Redlands, April 10, this year.

Under the will the estate is left in trust, the total income to be divided equally among his three daughter and his grandson, George M. Church, aged 10, of New York. When one heir dies his share is to be divided among the others, until finally the income will go to the last of the four.

The personal property is valued at $3,500,000, and having an annual income of $160,000. The income from the real property is placed at $60,000 yearly.

more than enjoying and rejoicing in a gift. The eye may kindle with pleasure and every sense may be gratified at the bounty poured into the cup of life, and we may drink of that cup in deep satisfaction and yet be indifferent, cold and unresponsive to the Giver.

GRATITUDE IS MEMORY.

"Gratitude is memory of the heart." It is response of man's love to God's love. Where selfishness rules, no sweet memories of the benefactor can find entry and no array of gifts could produce gratitude there. But in an unselfish life, removed from divineship, there the simplest gift were enough to overflow the heart with the fragrant incense of thanksgiving.

"If this day we find no music of thankfulness arising from our hearts, it is not because there is lack in favor and bounty and blessing, but because our hearts need re-training. If we be attuned to the divine harmonies, then together with everything that hath breath and being, we will offer unto God our thanksgiving. Gratitude is Christian grace; it is fruit of God's spirit indwelling; and like every other grace may be cultivated. It grows by use; it does by discipline. The more we give thanks, the more we do become thankful. Therefrom we do well to set apart this day from the hurry and rush of getting and enjoying, that we may find time to be grateful.

NATIONAL DAY.

"This is a national day. Beyond all the material well-being for which we should ever be thankful, the Christian citizen gives thanks today for very apparent forewarnings of moral and spiritual renovation. An orator in San Francisco a time ago described this as 'an era of the hysteria of an awakened conscience.' On every side signs are not wanting that the national consciousness of moral quality is more and more acute. The widespread social unrest, the discontent, and dissatisfaction—all these mean a growing sense of a need which only the religion of Christ Jesus can supply. His religion of man's brotherhood in God's one family. We are bound to thank God every day for every foretoken that promises such reforming of the bases of civilization as shall make indefinitely fruitful the purpose of Christ for the world."

"This is a church day, and as churchmen we are bound to give thanks because the church and the church is walking to the magnificent opportunity of today. The readjustments, in theology and in methods, which have characterized late years have revealed in greater clearness the absolute fundamental is.

EMPHASIS GROWS.

"The growing emphasis is upon these fundamentals is gradually destroying the ancient battle walls of sectarianism, and that truer emphasis is also arousing in the church a sense of its world-wide, world-saving man-elevating mission. Our thanksgivings go out for souls that have been born anew, born into the kingdom of heaven by water and the spirit; for souls confirmed, who are growing more and more in God's holy spirit for families established by holy matrimony, for those silent, strong influences which have gone forth in saving power throughout all clime and home life, lifting men and women and children to a nobler life with God. And although we speak through tears, we yet bless His holy name for all His servants departed this life in His faith and fear. In everything give thanks, for every blessing and bountiful favor, like a lustrous angel embodied, begs of us recognition; beseeches that we offer thanks unto the Most High God; and to help the weak ones to be strong; to cheer the sad heart with a song; to feel that love is understood, and that the world is growing good; to see the dawn of better years; with higher aim and lower tears; to know the Father and the Son, and be in peace with everyone.

Be thankful then, for all.

Gratitude

By JOHN E. STUCHELL, Pastor of Church of Piedmont.

"Were there not ten cleansed; but where are the nine?"—Luke 17:17.

Our Lord here pauses to express his surprise at a lack of gratitude for which He, with all his knowledge of human nature, was hardly prepared. The poor, miserable lepers slowly rotting away, had come and besought his aid. He had asked them, hours, their request, and gave directions which resulted in their recovery to health and hope. Instead of rushing to Him and breaking out into expressions of praise they went on their way, as though nothing had happened.

It is easy to condemn the others; but before doing so, let us weigh our words, lest we condemn ourselves. God has done more for most of us than he did for these lepers; for, if He has not restored us for better—kept us from it—then from what gratitude have we shown? I will not say that the lepers had no claim to what was given, for this were too hard a test, but even in the expression of thanks to God for all his goodness to us, I venture to say, that for one who has uttered his gratitude, ninety-nine have taken all for granted, considered the blessings as a part of their natural right, as owing to them as a result of the operation of some blind law, rather than the gifts of a loving Father; and many likely are grumbling because they have not had turkey instead of chicken, because they do not dwell in a house of marble rather than one of shingles, because they have not ten thousand dollars in the bank instead of one thousand.

Thus to take all the good that God can bestow upon us, to seize all the treasures that come our way, and fail to consider that they involve a corresponding obligation to an someone else, is to sit down at the feet of life and then die part without paying the bill."

Gratitude is one of the finest flowers of human character. It marks a spirit of the rarest quality. A small person does not know how to receive a favor; if he little him, he takes a surly pride in refusing to admit that another has placed him under obligation; even to say, Thank you to man, bless his lips, he abhors to say it to God.

I know not at which to marvel most,

at the folly of the one who refuses thus to be thankful to the gracious Giver of every good and perfect gift; or at the divine patience that continues to spare and to bless such a thankless creature.

GIVING THANKS

"All things are yours." The good, the ill,

The strength of soul, the weaker will;

The earth, the stars, the clouds, the sea;

The things that are, the things to be;

The walk of health, the bed of pain;

The fear of loss, the hope of gain;

The days of joy, the times of woe;

The love of friend, the hate of foe;

The purse of gold, the poor each day;

The talon of sin, the power to pray.

Be thankful for them all.

KING OF ALL TURKEYS FOR THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—"Big Charlie," king of Rhode Island turkeys, will adorn President Taft's table tonight when Thanksgiving dinner is served about 7:30 o'clock.

The big fellow came to the White House yesterday from the farm of Horace Vose at Westerly, R. I., and according to the oldest inhabitants of the White House, is the biggest turkey ever seen there. He weighs 37 pounds, being bred especially for the occasion.

His words we speak are promise of deeds.

We can in no other way show forth gratitude more truly than by demonstrating our loyalty to God and to God's kingdom.

and it Costs Nothing to Try

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment, discovered by Dr. Blower, who, for over thirty-six years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

The treatment is unlike any other. It is not a sharp, dry, douche, saline, cream, or tablet, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It clears out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment, without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blower, 748 Walton Street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal deafness, catarrhal deafness, catarrhal bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

CANADIAN ROAD TO BE PARALLELED

Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad
Soon Will Have Trans-Provincial Competitor.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 24.—D. D. Mann, vice-president of the Canadian Northern railroad, last night confirmed the report that the road is seeking a charter from the British Columbia government to construct a trans-provincial line north of the route of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

The proposed line is to run from Stewart, B. C., near the Alaska boundary, to Edmonton, Alberta. The charter for the Alberta portion of the line has already been granted. Mann denied that the Canadian Northern is seeking control of the proposed great waterways route.

Mann said he is strongly in favor of Canada participating in the imperial defense plans. He said that Canada's willingness to contribute to the defense of the empire has fostered a closer relation with the British Isles and was responsible for more favorable consideration of Canadian securities by British investors.

ALTITUDE RECORD

Ascends to a Height of 9970
Feet in His Tiny Bleirot
Monoplane.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—J. Armstrong Drexel broke all aeroplane altitude records here yesterday when he climbed above the city until his Bleirot monoplane was unable to make further progress in the rarified atmosphere.

The ink in the needle of his barograph ran out at 9,750 feet, which was accepted as a new world's record last night by Clifford B. Harmon, chairman of the National Association of Aero Clubs of America, and James King Duffy, the secretary of that body.

RECORD IS OFFICIAL.

The instrument is the same one which Johnson carried when he made the former record of 9,714 feet at Belmont Park on October 21. It was brought to this city under the seal by Duffy in order that the record made would be official.

Drexel left the aviation field at Point Breeze, in the extreme southern part of the city, at 3:23. He landed at Orland, about twenty miles north of the spot where he had started, at 4:46. In his flight he had traveled at least thirty miles to the northward, for when he started to descend, after flying fifteen minutes to force the machine higher, he glided down for a distance which he estimated tonight at about six miles.

MAKES SAFE LANDING.

So swiftly did the monoplane descend that the aviator was unseated. However, he remained in the machine and brought his machine to the ground without injury. He at once notified the officials at the aviation field of his landing. Clifford B. Harmon and Graham White left for Orland in an automobile and brought the aviator and the barograph still under seal to this city.

Drexel said tonight that he would fly the machine back to the aviation field tomorrow morning. He was greatly disappointed when he found that the barograph had failed to register an even thousand feet.

AIR TOO LIGHT.

The air was so light it was impossible to make the machine ascend another foot, he said. "The engine would not carry it any farther and I was up at the extreme altitude for more than fifteen minutes, jumping the machine in an effort to secure a greater height."

Drexel tonight said that it was very cold, yet as he was warmly clothed, he did not suffer as he had when he made his previous record of 9,500 feet at Lanark, Scotland, and 8,700 feet at Belmont Park.

VANISHES FROM SIGHT.

When Drexel began his flight a light breeze was blowing from the south. As he rose, the aviator pointed his machine toward the south, but in less than five minutes was only a speck in the sky.

When the monoplane finally disappeared from view, the curiosity of the crowd was at fever pitch for more than an hour. Finally when word reached the track that he had landed safely at Orland a mighty shout went up.

DEMAND RECOUNT OF GREAT FALLS

Montana City Again Declares
Former Recount Was Not Honestly Made.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Nov. 24.—The census commissioner of the board of commerce, in answer to a reply from Census Director Durand, refusing to take a recount here, sent a telegram to Durand, in which he said:

"We again demand that this city be re-estimated in order to prove that it has 21,000. The school census of this city showed 4118 pupils and the attendance was 1818 in the year 1900. The census of 1910 of children under 21 was 6101, and a tally attending school 3108.

"Street car traffic has increased 129 per cent, lighting 150 per cent and postage 105 per cent during the past ten years. We had the population in 1900, notwithstanding your assertion to the contrary, and we have the population we now claim, and we have the right to be openly and honestly counted."

Collector Pays $1000 for Common Snipe Eggs

Eskimos Gather Valuable Specimens for Collection of New York Man.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The speckled eggs of the common red-breasted snipe have just been added to the collection of J. L. Childs of Flora Park, L. I., at an expense of $1000. Common as is the bird on Long Island, its mottled brown eggs are very hard to get hold of. The snipe lays her eggs in rock crannies way up the Arctic Circle, and Childs' $1000 eggs were gathered by Eskimos in the extreme northern part of legend. The eggs are known to science as "triangulans." Commander Peary, on his return from the north pole, got a few of them and on his return presented them to the American Museum of Natural History.

Childs is said to have the finest collection of rare eggs in America.

USE BATH TUBS FOR COAL BINS

U. S. Steel Corporation Says
Foreign Workmen Never Bathe.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—No more bath tubs will be installed in the houses to be built for the foreign workmen employed by the various subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation at Gary, Ind. This is the edict that came from the big corporation yesterday.

When an architect made a plan for a building permit in Chicago for a company which intended to erect a score of concrete houses in the western part of the city, it was noticed that the plans called for all modern conveniences, with the exception of the bath tub.

"Three years ago," said a steel corporation official, "we erected sixty well-appointed houses for foreign workmen and their families and placed bath tubs in each one. A year later a report was sent from New York as to why they were to be rid of the tubs. As an inspection revealed the fact that in no instance was the bath tub ever used, but was being utilized as coal bins, etc., we decided it was best to omit the tubs."

ETHEL LE NEVE SENT LOVE TO CRIPPEN ON SCAFFOLD

The Message Reached Doomed Physician Half Hour Before He Met Death.

Woman Lecturer Tells A. F. of L. to Dodge Rich and Their Wealth.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Ethel Le Neve is ill in London. She has not been out of bed since coming straight by the fate of Dr. Crippen. Yesterday she sent the following telegram to Crippen which was handed to him in the morning half an hour before he stepped to the scaffold.

"My love, my thoughts and prayers are with you. God bless you darling wife."

Earlier Miss Le Neve visited the prison to ask about the condition Crippen was reported to have in doing so she assured the governor that there had been no confession.

When questioned regarding the statement that she intended to visit America, Miss Le Neve said:

"My friends in America want me to go there, but I have made no plans for the future. I shall be in London at least a week. There are many things I want to do and I must see to the winding up of the affairs of his estate, pay all just debts and also attend to my own affairs, which require a great deal of attention and will occupy considerable time."

"I shall probably go to the country soon for a holiday until the legal preliminaries are carried out. It will be some time where I am not known, where I can be alone with my sorrow."

"I am tired of the robbery and want now only to be quiet. In America I am afraid I should not attain my object."

ANGRY SKIN HEALED

No Doubt About Postlam's Power to Kill Germ Life

In any bacterial affection of the skin, Postlam, the new skin remedy, shows its power to annihilate germ life by stopping the itching at once and causing the trouble to quickly disappear. Postlam acts in this manner in any surface skin disease including all eczema, salt rheum, skin scale, seven-year itch, psoriasis, barbers itch and similar troubles. Every day brings records of remarkable cures for exceeding all claims made for it. "For sixteen months I suffered with eczema," writes Mrs. M. V. Elmer, Elmira, Ont., "spent two months in a hospital, tried everything known, with little or no effect. On December 29 I procured Postlam, and am happy to say that on January 7 (9 days later) I am perfectly healed, my skin as clear as a baby's."

In minor skin afflictions, such as pimples, red noses, complexion blemishes, rashes, scales, itching feet, etc., the small quantity of Postlam will do the work results being seen overnight. Postlam is sold in two sizes, (trial, 50 cents, regular jars $1.00) by all druggists, particularly The One Drug Company. For a free sample write to the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

TYPHOID SWEEPS NAVAL ACADEMY

Another Case Develops at Annapolis; No Poison Is Found in Sugar.

ANNAPOLES, Md., Nov. 24.—Another case of typhoid fever developed at the naval academy yesterday, bringing the number of midshipmen now affected with the disease up to twenty-three.

The surgeons at the Naval Medical Hospital where tests were made of samples of sugar which it is alleged was contaminated with last night, submitted a report that the sugar had been dosed with ordinary table salt. No trace of poison was discovered.

The surgeons, however, said that a mixture of sugar and salt may make one still as more dangerous combinations.

There are now twenty-two cases of typhoid at the academy, and four of the patients are in a serious condition.

The typhoid epidemic has no relation to the contaminated sugar.

The surgeon general expects that a few more cases of the fever may develop in the next week as a result of drinking milk supposed to have contained the germ, but he believes that by the end of this month the period of incubation will have passed.

Notice to Fat Woman

Presumably you know ladies, that the proper paper nowadays is lines. Curves are passé. You have got to take off your fat. This must be done in one of three ways. By dieting, by exercises by means of Marmola's Prescriptive Tablets. The two former will keep you busy for months and punish you severely, the latter will not cost you cents at the druggists. The ability will not make any alteration in you. If necessary, and yet all probability, you have used up one case, 3 lbs. will be lost from 12 to 16 ounces fat a day. Which method do you like the best?

If you fancy this pleasant method getting out of your skin, see our druggists, or else write the Marmola Co., 228 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich. to send you a case by mail. These cases contain so generous a quantity of tablets, so much as marmalade, that it is better to have three games having been played to a tie.
